Amendment

27d. Believes that racial justice requires climate justice because climate change disproportionately impacts and kills people and communities of colour; believes that Black lives matter also in the context of the climate crisis and that the EU and other Global North actors must therefore acknowledge and act on their climate debt, i.e. their historical responsibility for emissions, and use their advantaged financial and technological resources to this end; believes that any decarbonisation strategy that is not in line with limiting global warming to 1.5 °C is, therefore, a racist policy, as it assumes that Black lives are expendable; believes that the Warsaw International Mechanism for Loss and Damage needs a financial arm that is proportionate in order to assist countries that suffer losses and damage from climate change, such as Mozambique in the wake of Cyclones Kenneth and Idai, and that this, therefore, is an issue of racial justice;
