

6.10.2020

B9-0310/4

Amendment 4

Elżbieta Rafalska

on behalf of the ECR Group

Motion for a resolution

Lucia Ďuriš Nicholsonová

on behalf of the Committee on Employment and Social Affairs
The Youth Guarantee

B9-0310/2020

Motion for a resolution

Recital Q

Motion for a resolution

Q. whereas the current generation of young people are highly skilled; whereas skilling, reskilling and upskilling are not an answer to the lack of jobs for young people; whereas the creation of quality and sustainable jobs, on the other hand, is key to their stability;

Amendment

Q. whereas the current generation of young people are highly skilled; whereas skilling, reskilling and upskilling are not a sufficient answer to the lack of jobs for young people; whereas the creation of quality and sustainable jobs, on the other hand, is key to their stability;

Or. en

6.10.2020

B9-0310/5

Amendment 5

Elżbieta Rafalska

on behalf of the ECR Group

Motion for a resolution

Lucia Ďuriš Nicholsonová

on behalf of the Committee on Employment and Social Affairs

The Youth Guarantee

B9-0310/2020

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 9

Motion for a resolution

9. Urges Member States to ensure that young people who register for the Youth Guarantee schemes are proposed good-quality, varied and tailored job, training, apprenticeship or internship offers, including fair remuneration, and that employment offers are aligned with the relevant principles of the EPSR, ensuring the right to fair and equal treatment as regards working conditions, including ensuring a work environment adapted to the needs of persons with disabilities, access to social protection and training, and probation periods of a reasonable duration, as well as prohibiting abuse of atypical contracts; insists that under no circumstances should offers under the reinforced Youth Guarantee contribute to social dumping, wage dumping, in-work poverty or precariousness for young people; reiterates that internships could play a part in vocational training; recalls that internship contracts should take the form of written, legally binding agreements, specifying the tasks of the intern and including decent remuneration; considers that the objective of the Youth Guarantee must lead to employment and that internships should never lead to job replacement;

Amendment

9. Urges Member States to ensure that young people who register for the Youth Guarantee schemes are proposed good-quality, varied and tailored job, training, apprenticeship or internship offers, including fair remuneration, and that employment offers are aligned with the relevant principles of the EPSR, ensuring the right to fair and equal treatment as regards working conditions, including ensuring a work environment adapted to the needs of persons with disabilities, access to social protection and training, and probation periods of a reasonable duration, as well as prohibiting abuse of atypical contracts; insists that under no circumstances should offers under the reinforced Youth Guarantee contribute to unfair competition and unfair wages, in-work poverty or precariousness for young people; reiterates that internships could play a part in vocational training; recalls that internship contracts should take the form of written, legally binding agreements, specifying the tasks of the intern and including decent remuneration; considers that the objective of the Youth Guarantee must lead to employment and that internships should never lead to job replacement;

Or. en

AM\1215141EN.docx

PE658.347v01-00

