

21.6.2021

B9-0365/6

Amendment 6

Manon Aubry, Eugenia Rodríguez Palop
on behalf of The Left Group

Motion for a resolution

B9-0365/2021

Committee on Development, Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality
25th anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD25)
(Nairobi Summit)

Motion for a resolution

Recital J

Motion for a resolution

J. whereas innovations in modern contraceptive methods have made their use more convenient and reduced their side effects;

Amendment

J. whereas innovations in modern contraceptive methods have made their use more convenient and reduced their side effects; whereas, however, significant side effects still exist and their reduction should be a priority for research on the subject;

Or. en

Amendment 7

Manon Aubry, Eugenia Rodríguez Palop
on behalf of The Left Group

Motion for a resolutionB9-0365/2021

Committee on Development, Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality
25th anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD25)
(Nairobi Summit)

Motion for a resolutionParagraph 14Motion for a resolution*

14. Emphasises that women should be guaranteed proper and affordable healthcare, universal respect for their sexual and reproductive rights, and access to these rights; emphasises that accessible healthcare and universal respect for and access to SRHR, family planning, maternal, antenatal and neonatal healthcare and safe abortion services are important elements for saving women's lives and reducing infant and child mortality; finds it unacceptable that women's and girls' bodies remain an ideological battleground, specifically with regard to their SRHR;

Amendment

14. Emphasises that women should be guaranteed proper and affordable healthcare, universal respect for their sexual and reproductive rights, and access to these rights; emphasises that accessible healthcare and universal respect for and access to SRHR, family planning, maternal, antenatal and neonatal healthcare and safe abortion services are important elements for saving women's lives and reducing infant and child mortality; finds it unacceptable that women's and girls' bodies remain an ideological battleground, specifically with regard to their SRHR; is concerned about the considerable lobbying work being carried out against women's rights and SRHR at national, European and international levels by reactionary NGOs;

Or. en

Amendment 8Manon Aubry

on behalf of The Left Group

Motion for a resolutionB9-0365/2021*Committee on Development, Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality25th anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD25)
(Nairobi Summit)Motion for a resolution*Paragraph 14Motion for a resolutionAmendment*

14. Emphasises that women should be guaranteed proper and affordable healthcare, universal respect for their sexual and reproductive rights, and access to these rights; emphasises that accessible healthcare and universal respect for and access to SRHR, family planning, maternal, antenatal and neonatal healthcare and safe abortion services are important elements for saving women's lives and reducing infant and child mortality; finds it unacceptable that women's and girls' bodies remain an ideological battleground, specifically with regard to their SRHR;

14. Emphasises that women should be guaranteed proper and affordable healthcare, universal respect for their sexual and reproductive rights, and access to these rights; emphasises that accessible healthcare and universal respect for and access to SRHR, family planning, maternal, antenatal and neonatal healthcare and safe abortion services are important elements for saving women's lives and reducing infant and child mortality; finds it unacceptable that women's and girls' bodies remain an ideological battleground, specifically with regard to their SRHR; is concerned about the inclusion in the EU transparency register of organisations such as Ordo Iuris, ADF International, Alliance VITA, European Dignity Watch, the Federation of Catholic Family Associations in Europe (FAFCE), the One of Us European Federation for Life and Human Dignity, Profesionales por la Ética and World Youth Alliance Europe, which are thereby authorised to work openly with public institutions for the decline of women's rights and SRHR;

Or. en

Amendment 9Manon Aubry, Eugenia Rodríguez Palop

on behalf of The Left Group

Motion for a resolutionB9-0365/2021*Committee on Development, Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality25th anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD25)
(Nairobi Summit)Motion for a resolution*Paragraph 14Motion for a resolutionAmendment*

14. Emphasises that women should be guaranteed proper and affordable healthcare, universal respect for their sexual and reproductive rights, and access to these rights; emphasises that accessible healthcare and universal respect for and access to SRHR, family planning, maternal, antenatal and neonatal healthcare and safe abortion services are important elements for saving women's lives and reducing infant and child mortality; finds it unacceptable that women's and girls' bodies remain an ideological battleground, specifically with regard to their SRHR;

14. Emphasises that women should be guaranteed proper and affordable healthcare, universal respect for their sexual and reproductive rights, and access to these rights; emphasises that accessible healthcare and universal respect for and access to SRHR, family planning, maternal, antenatal and neonatal healthcare and safe abortion services are important elements for saving women's lives and reducing infant and child mortality; finds it unacceptable that women's and girls' bodies remain an ideological battleground, specifically with regard to their SRHR; considers that the authorisation given to reactionary organisations to influence the definition and implementation of European public policies seriously contravenes the spirit of the numerous European Parliament resolutions and multiple commitments from the European Union in favour of the rights of women and SRHR;

Or. en

21.6.2021

B9-0365/10

Amendment 10

Manon Aubry, Eugenia Rodríguez Palop

on behalf of The Left Group

Motion for a resolution

B9-0365/2021

Committee on Development, Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality

25th anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD25)
(Nairobi Summit)

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 17

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

17. Recalls that, in addition to taboos around menstruation, the lack of access to water, sanitation and hygiene (WASH) services in schools is a major obstacle to the schooling of girls when they have their period; stresses the need for adequate infrastructure in schools to ensure that girls have access to water and separate toilets;

17. Recalls that, in addition to taboos around menstruation, the lack of access to water, sanitation and hygiene (WASH) services in schools and the lack of free menstrual protection are a major obstacle to the schooling of girls when they have their period; stresses the need for adequate infrastructure in schools to ensure that girls have access to water and separate toilets;

Or. en

21.6.2021

B9-0365/11

Amendment 11

Manon Aubry, Eugenia Rodríguez Palop

on behalf of The Left Group

Motion for a resolution

B9-0365/2021

Committee on Development, Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality

25th anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD25)
(Nairobi Summit)

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 20

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

20. Is concerned that restrictive abortion laws in many countries, poor availability of services, high costs, stigma, conscientious objection of healthcare providers and unnecessary requirements, such as mandatory waiting periods, mandatory counselling, provision of misleading information, third-party authorisation, and medically unnecessary tests, are among the main barriers to addressing maternal health and contribute to unsafe abortions and maternal deaths;

20. Is concerned that restrictive abortion laws in many countries, poor availability of services, high unreimbursed costs, stigma, conscientious objection of healthcare providers and unnecessary requirements, such as mandatory waiting periods, mandatory counselling, provision of misleading information, third-party authorisation, and medically unnecessary tests, are among the main barriers to addressing maternal health and contribute to unsafe abortions and maternal deaths;

Or. en

21.6.2021

B9-0365/12

Amendment 12

Manon Aubry, Eugenia Rodríguez Palop
on behalf of The Left Group

Motion for a resolution

B9-0365/2021

Committee on Development, Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality
25th anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD25)
(Nairobi Summit)

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25. Considers it crucial that monitoring measures and sanctions for perpetrators are put in place in all countries in order to eliminate gender-based violence including early, child and forced marriages, FGM and other harmful practices;

25. Expresses deep concern about the serious inadequacies of public systems for collecting and processing requests for assistance, protection and complaints against gender-based violence, in particular to the police; considers it crucial that monitoring measures and sanctions for perpetrators are put in place in all countries in order to eliminate gender-based violence including early, child and forced marriages, FGM and other harmful practices; calls for urgent improvements to police systems and public systems for collecting and processing requests for assistance, protection and complaints against gender-based violence;

Or. en