Motion for a resolution
Amendment

1a. Stresses that the European Union is based on the principle of conferral, under which the EU institutions may act only within the limits of the competences conferred upon them directly by the Member States in accordance with the Treaties, while the Member States retain their competence in other areas; deplores the fact that some EU institutions act ultra vires, beyond the limits of their competences;

Rule of law crisis in Poland and the primacy of EU law

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3 a (new)

3a. Points out that constitutional courts in many Member States have repeatedly examined the constitutionality of EU law and have stated that national constitutions have primacy over EU law; underlines that the judgment of the Polish Constitutional Tribunal is similar, in terms of scope and content, to those of constitutional courts in other Member States;
