Joint motion for a resolution
Recital Da (new)

Da. whereas in his aggressive speeches of 22 and 24 February 2022, which were filled with false historical narratives, Vladimir Putin portrayed the aggression against Ukraine as a pre-emptive strike against imaginary Western aggression and as a decisive battle to protect Russia’s imperial hold over Europe’s east, which recalls the most dreadful statements of 20th century dictators;
28.2.2022

Amendment 2
Anna Fotyga
on behalf of the ECR Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The Left
Russian aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Recital Db (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

Db. whereas Ukraine’s armed forces under the command of President Volodymyr Zelensky have maintained control over almost the entire territory of Ukraine, including its capital Kyiv and the southern regions of the country, preventing the Russian invaders from achieving any of their pre-determined objectives, including the elimination of the democratically elected Ukrainian leadership;

Or. en
Joint motion for a resolution

Recital Ea (new)

whereas the democratic world has demonstrated unprecedented unity, solidarity and support for Ukraine and in defending the core principles of the rules-based international order, humanity and peace; whereas the international community has been overwhelmingly united in its strong condemnation of Russia's aggression, with only the dictatorships of Nicaragua, Venezuela and Cuba supporting Vladimir Putin’s actions;

Or. en
28.2.2022

Amendment 4

Anna Fotyga
on behalf of the ECR Group

Joint motion for a resolution

PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The Left

Russian aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

3. Underlines that the military aggression and invasion constitute a serious violation of international law, and in particular the UN Charter, and calls on the Russian Federation to return to fulfilling the responsibilities of a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council in maintaining peace and security and to respecting its commitments under the Helsinki Final Act, the Charter of Paris for a New Europe and the Budapest Memorandum; considers the Russian invasion in Ukraine an attack not only against a sovereign country but also against the principles and mechanism of cooperation and security in Europe and the rules-based international order, as defined by the UN Charter;

3. Underlines that the military aggression and invasion constitute a serious violation of international law, and in particular the UN Charter, and calls on the Russian Federation to return to fulfilling the responsibilities of a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council in maintaining peace and security and to respecting its commitments under the Helsinki Final Act, the Charter of Paris for a New Europe and the Budapest Memorandum; considers the Russian invasion in Ukraine an attack not only against a sovereign country but also against the principles and mechanism of cooperation and security in Europe and the rules-based international order, as defined by the UN Charter, and effectively makes Russia a rogue state;

Or. en
Amendment 5
Anna Fotyga
on behalf of the ECR Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The Left
Russian aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 5a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

5a. Pays tribute to the tremendous courage shown by the people of Ukraine, their heroic president Volodymyr Zelensky and the brave soldiers who are defending their country against the Russian invaders; calls on the free World to support their struggle for peace and freedom with all means at its disposal;

Or. en
Amendment 6
Anna Fotyga
on behalf of the ECR Group

Joint motion for a resolution
B9-0123/2022
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The Left
Russian aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 9a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

9a. Recalls that in the event of the situation deteriorating, of further attacks on the civilian population or of the use of prohibited weapons, the international community should utilise all tools at its disposal, including the establishment of a no-fly zone over Ukraine; recalls in this regard that the Russian Federation under Putin is capable of barbaric atrocities, such as those committed in Grozny in 2000 and Aleppo in 2016;

Or. en
28.2.2022

Amendment 7
Anna Fotyga
on behalf of the ECR Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The Left
Russian aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 13

13. Welcomes the active approach of the Governments of Poland, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Slovakia and Moldova in keeping their borders open and providing means of evacuation, shelter, emergency assistance, medical assistance and asylum to people fleeing the war in Ukraine and prospective persecution, including both Ukrainian and non-Ukrainian nationals;

Amendment
13. Welcomes the active approach of the Governments of Poland, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Slovakia and Moldova in keeping their borders open and providing means of evacuation, shelter, emergency assistance, medical assistance and asylum to people fleeing the war in Ukraine and prospective persecution, including both Ukrainian and non-Ukrainian nationals; calls on the Commission and the Council to provide extra funding for these countries as they are the primary points of entry of Ukrainian refugees to the EU;

Or. en
16. Calls, in particular, for the import of the most important Russian export goods, including oil and gas, to be restricted, for new EU investment in the Russian Federation as well as new Russian investment in the EU to be banned, for all Russian banks to be blocked from the European financial system, for the Russian Federation and Belarus to be banned from the SWIFT system and for secondary sanctions to be imposed on banks using alternative means to SWIFT for related transactions or for similar sanctions to those against Russian banks or the banking system to be imposed, and calls for it to be prohibited to raise funds or borrow on European markets from secondary capital markets; calls for access to EU public procurement to be banned for the purchase of goods and services originating from Russia and Belarus; calls for the export of any high-tech products and strategic goods to the Russian market to be banned; calls for funding for all research and innovation cooperation programs with Russia supported with EU funds to be immediately blocked or withdrawn and for interregional programmes to be suspended; calls for EU ports to be closed to Russian ships; calls for the Russian-controlled International Investment Bank to be immediately banned from operating in the EU; calls for access to all EU ports to be restricted; calls for new EU investment in the Russian Federation as well as new Russian investment in the EU to be banned, for all Russian banks to be blocked from the European financial system, for the Russian Federation and Belarus to be banned from the SWIFT system and for secondary sanctions to be imposed on banks using alternative means to SWIFT for related transactions or for similar sanctions to those against Russian banks or the banking system to be imposed, and calls for it to be prohibited to raise funds or borrow on European markets from secondary capital markets; calls for access to EU public procurement to be banned for the purchase of goods and services originating from Russia and Belarus; calls for the export of any high-tech products and strategic goods to the Russian market to be banned; calls for funding for all research and innovation cooperation programs with Russia supported with EU funds to be immediately blocked or withdrawn and for interregional programmes to be suspended; calls for EU ports to be closed to Russian ships; calls for the Russian-controlled international investment funds and banks such as the International Investment Bank to be immediately banned from operating in the EU.
refused for ships whose last or next port of call is in the Russian Federation, except in the case of necessary justified humanitarian reasons; welcomes the ban on flights by Russian carriers as well as flights by private Russian planes in EU airspace; calls for the adoption and appropriate application of similar sanctions on Belarus; EU; calls for access to all EU ports to be refused for ships whose last or next port of call is in the Russian Federation, except in the case of necessary justified humanitarian reasons; welcomes the ban on flights by Russian carriers as well as flights by private Russian planes in EU airspace; calls for the adoption and appropriate application of similar sanctions on Belarus;
Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 19

19. Reiterates its previous calls to significantly reduce energy dependence, in particular on Russian gas, oil and coal, by, inter alia, diversifying energy sources, including expanding liquefied natural gas terminals and supply routes, unbundling gas storage, and increasing energy efficiency and the speed of the clean energy transition; calls for the Nord Stream 2 pipeline to be definitively abandoned and therefore welcomes the decision of the German Government to halt the certification of Nord Stream 2; calls on the Commission and the Member States to create a coordination mechanism and to use all possible gas depositories in order to ensure uninterrupted gas supply to the EU; calls on the Member States, the Commission and the European Central Bank to carefully monitor the impact of the Russian attack on financial stability and the stability of prices, especially in relation to energy products, and to consider appropriate measures to mitigate any negative economic and social impact; calls on the Member States to stop any collaboration with Russia in the nuclear field, in particular cooperation with Rosatom and its subsidiaries, including cooperation with Russia in the International Atomic Energy Agency and the termination or removal of operating licences for all Rosatom subsidiaries;
the termination or removal of operating licences for all Rosatom subsidiaries;

Or. en
28.2.2022

Amendment 10
Anna Fotyga
on behalf of the ECR Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The Left
Russian aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 40a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

40a. Condemns the Russian Federation for conducting military operations in direct proximity to critical infrastructure, such as nuclear power plants, dams and chemical factories; is gravely concerned about the situation of the Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant after its capture by the Russian forces, which has resulted in the violation of every possible regulation on the safety of nuclear power plants and which is being used as a springboard for an offensive against Kyiv, including artillery shelling; calls on the international community to closely monitor the situation and calls for an urgent meeting of the International Atomic Energy Agency’s Board of Governors on the issues of the nuclear repercussions of the Russian aggression;

Or. en