Russian aggression against Ukraine

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 19

19. Reiterates its previous calls to significantly reduce energy dependence, in particular on Russian gas, oil and coal, by, inter alia, diversifying energy sources, including expanding liquefied natural gas terminals and supply routes, unbundling gas storage, and increasing energy efficiency and the speed of the clean energy transition; calls for the Nord Stream 2 pipeline to be definitively abandoned and therefore welcomes the decision of the German Government to halt the certification of Nord Stream 2; calls on the Commission and the Member States to create a coordination mechanism and to use all possible gas depositories in order to ensure uninterrupted gas supply to the EU; calls on the Member States, the Commission and the European Central Bank to carefully monitor the impact of the Russian attack on financial stability and the stability of prices, especially in relation to energy products, and to consider appropriate measures to mitigate any negative economic and social impact; calls on the Member States to stop any collaboration with Russia in the nuclear field, in particular cooperation with Rosatom and its subsidiaries, including cooperation with Russia in the International Atomic Energy Agency and the termination or removal of operating licences for all Rosatom subsidiaries; underlines that the sanctions might have a specific impact on European households and that they should not pay the price of this crisis; calls therefore on the Member States to prepare plans and subsidies for households to avoid the deepening of the energy crisis;

Paragraph 31

Motion for a resolution  Amendment

31. Calls for the EU and its Member States to continue providing the strongest possible economic and financial support to Ukraine, as well as macro-financial and technical assistance wherever needed, including in defence- and security-related areas, to activate any EU budget instruments available and to develop a long-term strategy to support Ukraine’s efforts in strengthening the resilience of its democratic institutions and economy;

31. Calls for the EU and its Member States to continue providing the strongest possible economic and financial support to Ukraine, as well as macro-financial and technical assistance, in the form of a donation and not a loan, without economic conditionalities and focusing on humanitarian needs, to activate any EU budget instruments available and to develop a long-term strategy to support Ukraine’s efforts in strengthening the resilience of its democratic institutions and economy;

Paragraph 34

Motion for a resolution

34. Calls for the EU institutions to work towards granting EU candidate status to Ukraine, in line with Article 49 of the Treaty on European Union and on the basis of merit, and, in the meantime, to continue to work towards its integration into the EU single market along the lines of the Association Agreement;

Amendment

34. Insists on the right to freely choose an alliance; recalls the right of all European states that respect EU values to apply to become a member of the Union; considers, however, that an immediate accession of Ukraine to EU membership could further escalate tensions towards a fully fledged war; calls therefore for the EU institutions to first await the peaceful settlement of the current crisis and all existing territorial disputes before offering a credible long-term perspective for a future EU enlargement;

Paragraph 13

13. Welcomes the active approach of the Governments of Poland, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Slovakia and Moldova in keeping their borders open and providing means of evacuation, shelter,
    emergency assistance, medical assistance
    and asylum to people fleeing the war in Ukraine and prospective persecution, including both Ukrainian and non-Ukrainian nationals;

13.1. Welcomes the active approach of
    the Governments of Poland, Hungary,
    Romania, Bulgaria, Slovakia and Moldova
    in keeping their borders open and
    providing means of evacuation, shelter,
    emergency assistance, medical assistance
    and asylum to people fleeing the war in Ukraine and prospective persecution,
    including both Ukrainian and non-Ukrainian nationals; calls on the Council and the Commission not to suspend the visa waiver agreement with Ukraine; calls on all EU Member States to admit non-Ukrainian nationals fleeing the conflict and war as conscientious objectors from Russia and Ukraine; reminds all EU Member States of their responsibility to respect the fundamental rights of all asylum-seekers seeking safety in the Union, irrespective of their nationalities, and to stop push-backs; condemns the racism experienced by African and Middle Eastern students who have been prevented from boarding buses and trains in Ukraine to reach the border or stopped at the border and thus prevented from seeking safety;
