Items for decision

1. New referrals

1.1. Proposal for a REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL amending Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union

Decision:

Coordinators decided that the Chair should be the rapporteur for both this proposal and the upcoming proposal for further revision of the Financial Regulation at the price of 3 points.

1.2. BUDG's Own-Initiative Report on the upcoming MFF revision: "Towards a revision of the 2021-2027 Multiannual Financial Framework: Parliament's position"

Decision:

Coordinators decided that CONT should issue an opinion under Rule 56. Several groups expressed interest for the rapporteurship (EPP, S&D and Renew). Their coordinators will decide on who takes the rapporteurship (at the price of 0.5 points) and inform the Secretariat.

2. Screening of ECA reports

Report	Title	Date of publication	Pol.group	Secretariat's/Chair's proposal
Special Report 07/2022	SMEs' internationalisation: a large number of support actions but not fully coherent or coordinated	17 May at 17:00	Greens/EFA / sector 25	Refer to ITRE Committee

Decision:

Coordinators approved the proposal from the Secretariat.

3. Contribution from the CONT Committee for the Summary Report 2022

At the Coordinators meeting of 28 February political groups were invited to send contributions to the Secretariat by 8 April. The deadline for proposals to be sent to the CCC will expire on 20 May 2022.

Decision:

Coordinators approved the CONT contribution to the Summary Report 2022.

4. CONT speakers for the Interparliamentary Committee Meeting on “Common experiences and challenges in exercising budgetary control functions”

Decision:

Coordinators decided that EPP and S&D would designate a Member to open each of the two panels during the Interparliamentary Committee Meeting on 16 June. The names of these Members should be communicated to the Secretariat as soon as possible.

5. Public remote hearing on “the role of investigative journalism to uncover fraud and corruption in Europe”

Decision:

Coordinators approved the programme of the public hearing. Concerning speakers it was decided to invite speakers from HU/IT/RO/SK/DE based on proposals from the EPP, S&D and Renew groups.

6. Calendar for second part of 2022

Decision:

Coordinators approved the calendar of meetings for the second half of 2022. Coordinators are invited to convey to their groups that the EP calendar is increasingly side-lining committee activity. Depending on the future regime for committee work and a possible increase of committee meeting time, an update of the calendar might be considered.

7. Discharge 2021 calendar

Decision:

Coordinators discussed the draft calendar. Hesitation was expressed towards having important meetings and votes on Thursday afternoons. It was explained that this planning has been made necessary due to limited committee meeting time in autumn and with this the discharge calendar was accepted. Depending on the future regime for committee work and a possible increase of committee meeting time, an update of the calendar might be considered.

8. Participation in public hearings

A lot of work goes into organising public hearings but the attendance from CONT Members has been decreasing. At the last public hearing there was only one MEP attending remotely in addition to the Chair who was the only Member present in the meeting room. Public perception (also via webstreaming) of an empty meeting room with only speakers and staff present and no Members participating in the debate, is suboptimal.

Decision:

Coordinators agreed that it is unfortunate and not giving a good impression when only few Members are present for public hearings or similar events. The Chair and Coordinators will appeal to Members to improve their attendance record.

5. PROTECTION OF THE EUROPEAN UNION'S FINANCIAL INTERESTS - COMBATING FRAUD - ANNUAL REPORT 2020

Administrator: Giulia Bastianello

Shadow rapporteurs: Petri Sarvamaa (EPP), Caterina Chinnici (S&D), Mikulas Peksa (Greens), Matteo Adinolfi (ID), Ryszard Czarnecki (ECR), Luke Ming Flanagan (The Left)

As every year, the CONT Committee decided to draw up an own-initiative report on the state of the Protection of the EU Financial Interests, this year in respect of the year 2020. The report is based, among other sources, on the Commission's 32nd annual PIF report 2020 that was presented before the Committee on 14 October 2021 by the OLAF Director-General, Mr Itälä,

The rapporteur for the own-initiative report, Ms Cseh presented her draft report during the CONT meeting of 31 March 2022.

Following that, 104 Amendments were tabled to the draft report. The rapporteur, together with the shadow rapporteurs, has worked on and proposed 24 compromise amendments, which have been integrated in the voting list and will be put to the vote.

Amongst the amendments tabled, some concerned the level of protection of the EU funds for development cooperation and recommendations for the new Neighbourhood, development and international cooperation instrument and the pre-accession assistance, calls for digitalisation and comparability of data and data systems, the mandatory use of Arachne, the assessment of NAFS adopted by Member States or calls for their adoption to Member States that still have to adopt one, OLAF's cooperation with other EU bodies and especially with EPPO, the Operation Sentinel, and the Rule of law conditionality mechanism.

6. CONTROL OF THE FINANCIAL ACTIVITIES OF THE EUROPEAN INVESTMENT BANK - ANNUAL REPORT 2020

Shadows rapporteurs: Angelika Winzig (EPP), Alin Mituta (Renew), Viola von Cramon Taubadel (Greens), Ryszard Czarnecki (ECR), Luke Ming Flanagan (The Left)

The European Investment Bank is the biggest multilateral financial institution in the world and a major actor in the implementation of several Union's policies.

The draft report presented on 31 March 2022 looked into the 2020 annual records of EIB's funding activities, the main priorities of its investment policy and the sustainability of its business model with specific focus on Covid-19 pandemic outbreak related actions: the initial draft report considered the role of the EIB's financing actions, acknowledging that the economic consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic deepened the structural differences across Member States, making the EIB's statutory mission to support cohesion all the more necessary. In the meantime, due consideration was paid to the Bank's position as largest multilateral financier of climate actions.

Following the presentation of the draft report, 73 amendments were tabled covering several topics, amongst them on the Bank's role in supporting key policy areas, on the environmental and social sustainability framework and the endorsement of human rights principles, on transparency and gender balance and the need for a stronger scrutiny by the ECA on EIB operations.

On the ground of the tabled amendments, four compromise amendments are proposed by the Rapporteur.

Against this scenario and an overall positive assessment acknowledging the multiplicity and complexity of the activities performed by the EIB, the resulting draft report maintains its focus on the importance of ethics, integrity, accountability and transparency of the EIB corporate governance and activities.

In his draft opinion to ECON and LIBE on the proposal for a regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing the Authority for Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism, Mr Fernandes has leveraged the experience of the CONT Committee focusing on the shortcomings already identified by the Court of Auditors and the European Banking Authority.

The rapporteur reiterates his call to improve the transparency and governance of the Authority, including an enhanced role for Europol, OLAF and EPPO. It also includes suggestions to reinforce the role of financial intelligence units, including on the overall training and assistance provided by the Authority. Finally, there are also suggestions related to the role of ECA, as well as on the discharge procedure.

CONT Members tabled 113 amendments, and the rapporteur proposed 5 compromise amendments, covering topics such as the governance structure of the new authority, enhanced cooperation with EPPO, EDPS, and the FRA, or whistleblowing and confidentiality protocols.

Administrator: Rita Calatozzolo (Policy Department D)

CONT will hold a workshop on the Single Audit Approach

During the event Members will listen to the presentation of the final study on Single Audit Approach - Root Causes of the Weaknesses in the Work of the Member States' Managing and Audit Authorities by its authors, Jack Malan and Marta di Mauro, from the Center for Strategy and Evaluation Services (CSES).

The objective of the study are:

- to gain a comprehensive insight into the causes of the problems the national authorities face in implementing the European Union budget;
- to assess the quality and reliability of the authorities' work, their independence, specific weaknesses in the management and control systems, their cooperation with relevant actors (among others other national authorities, national supreme audit authorities, ECA, Commission, OLAF) and the respect for European and international applicable standards (e.g. auditing standards).

The final objective of the study is to indicate how to improve the reliability of the audit work of national authorities so that no serious deficiencies remain uncovered or uncorrected by the Member States when submitting the accounts, and that the Commission can rely on the assurance packages.

The workshop programme also foresees the participation of representatives of audit authorities from two Member States - Italy and Spain – that will contribute with their presentations to provide information about the perspective of a single audit approach in their countries.

Lebanon is currently hosting 1.5 million Syrian refugees – the highest refugee-population ratio globally – without sustainable solutions in sight.

In addition, the country is suffering from political and socio-economic instability, worsened by the COVID-19 pandemic, and the resource scarcity and public service collapse have led to an unprecedented crisis with severe humanitarian consequences and growing community tensions. Since 2011, the EU has allocated almost €742 million in humanitarian aid to respond to urgent needs in Lebanon.

The Rapporteur calls on the Lebanese Government to engage constructively with the EU in delivering the structural and sectoral reforms required to unlock further EU financial assistance and strengthen trade relations, on the condition that tangible progress is made on necessary reforms. On the latter, the Rapporteur recalls that the EU, the World Bank and the UN have already demanded the enactment of an anti-corruption strategy that effectively combats fraud, secures efficient audit of public accounts, strengthens the capacity of the Court of Accounts and dismantles corrupt practices within all branches of government.

Providing Lebanon with assistance continues to be a priority under the EU's new external funding instrument adopted in 2021, the seven-year, €79 billion 'Global Europe' Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument (Global Europe Instrument). Multi-annual programming for Lebanon under the Global Europe Instrument is focused on funding to build a sustainable state, able to meet the citizens' needs, reinforcing the economy and ensuring security and stability, including in the region.

12. STUDY ON "PRACTICES ON THE SIDE-EARNINGS OF EU PUBLIC OFFICE HOLDERS AND FUNCTIONARIES"

CONT Rapporteur: Daniel Freund (Greens)

Administrator: Benoit Lefort

Presentation by the authors of the study, Jack Malan, Marta Dimauro and Giorgio Cacciaguerra Ranghieri, Centre for Strategy and Evaluation Services (CSEC)

While the EU institutions have different rules and procedures in place for side-activities of public office-holders (Members of the EU Institutions, such as MEPs, Commissioners, Judges, Members of ECA, etc.), the EU officials of all institutions fall under the same staff regulations in order to exclude any conflictual situation. Implementing rules and practices, however, may be different between institutions or even within an institution. With regard to both EU office-holders and officials employed in the EU institutions and their current level of remuneration, which should safeguard their independence and impartiality, questions have been raised in the public whether office-holders and officials should be permitted to undertake side-activities causing potential conflicts of interests, especially if they are of a gainful nature and resulting in side-earnings.

Side-earnings can stem from a variety of activities, such as lecturing at universities or academies, publishing and speaking engagements, consulting and supervising, or sitting in boards or advisory bodies of enterprises or associations, some of which may be related to the content of the main occupation and thus raise legitimate concerns about potential conflicts of interests. Conversely, they can be completely unrelated to the main profession and thus irrelevant for potential conflicts of interests, such as: arts, sports, handicraft, small trade, etc. Within a wider context, side-activities, gainful or not, during a main job can also be seen as an entry for a future professional activity after the end of a current appointment. This can help provide up-to-date skills and knowledge of a profession whilst ensuring familiarity with the latest technical developments. However, side-activities can also constitute a potential risk for conflicts of interest when making friends or even concessions in the current job with a view to future employment options, the concerns being linked to the "revolving doors" phenomenon.

In its special report no. 3/19 on the ethical frameworks (of the other EU institutions), the European Court of Auditors spotted some "scope for improvement"¹. The European Parliament resolution on "Strengthening transparency and integrity in the EU institutions by setting up an independent EU ethics body"² proposed the conclusion of an interinstitutional agreement (IIA) based on Article 295 TFEU to set up an independent EU ethics body for Parliament and the Commission and open to the participation of all EU institutions, agencies and bodies.

The CONT committee has requested the study on the side-earnings of public office holders and functionaries which should compare rules and practices between EU institutions, Member States and other countries and international organisations. The study found significant differences in the rules being applied in the various EU Institutions and Member States. It highlights a number of good practices and the possible implications for the proposed EU ethics body."

13. ECA SPECIAL REPORT 6/2022 - EU INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS:

PROTECTION NOT FULLY WATERPROOF

Administrator: Fernando Gallego Osuna

Presentation of the special report by reporting ECA Member Ildikó Gáll-Pelcz

Intellectual property rights (IPR) play a vital part in the EU's economy. IPR-intensive industries generate almost 45 % of the EU's gross domestic product, worth 6.6 trillion euros and 29 % of employment. The European Commission and other EU bodies work with Member State authorities to ensure IPR protection, a key factor in the success of the Single Market.

This audit assessed the protection of EU trademarks, designs and geographical indications within the Single Market from 2017 to 2021. The Court's overall conclusion is that the EU framework for the protection of intellectual property rights is generally solid and robust, though there are still shortcomings.

The Court found that the legislation on EU designs is incomplete and outdated and there are shortcomings in the legislation on geographical indications. There is no clear methodology to determine EU fees for trademarks and designs. Furthermore, Member States did not uniformly implement the Intellectual Property Rights Enforcement Directive and there are weaknesses in the implementation of customs enforcement controls.

Concerning the European Union Intellectual Property Office (EUIPO), the Court concluded that there are weaknesses in its accountability framework and in its financing, control and evaluation systems. The Court remarks that as a fully self-financed agency, the EUIPO is excluded from European Parliamentary discharge, which instead is granted by its own Budget Committee.

The Court has expressed special concerns about EUIPO's discharge procedure also in the past. In this Special Report they reiterate their proposal that EUIPO should be subject to the general budgetary and discharge procedure before the European Parliament, rather than before its own Budget Committee, on the basis that its revenue stands from the exercise of public authority based on EU law. The Court has consistently stated that the same principles of accountability should be applied to all EU-related bodies.

14. CONT MISSION TO BULGARIA (11-13 APRIL 2022)

Chair of the mission: Thomáš Zdechovský (EPP)

Administrator: Ana Maria Nogueira

Exchange of views on mission report and discussion on follow-up

The mission was intended as the follow up on CONT's discussions on the allegations of corruption and misuse of public funds in Bulgaria potentially affecting EU financing interests.

More specifically, Members wished to:

- have an overview into the administration of EU funds under shared management in the country;
- ensure more transparency and openness of EU spending process;
- explore ways to increase transparency in the spending of EU funds.

Seven CONT members participated in the mission - Chair of the delegation, Mr Tomáš ZDECHOVSKÝ, Ms Tsvetelina PENKOVA, Ms Sophia IN 'TVELD, Ms Viola VON CRAMON-TAUBADEL, Mr Joachim KUHS, Mr Ryszard CZARNECKI and Mr Andrey NOVAKOV.

The CONT Members met with the Prime Minister, civil society organisations and investigative journalists, as well as the Bulgarian audit authority, officials of the EU funds managing and monitoring authorities. The delegation also met with government officials involved in the administration, management and control of EU funds, Bulgarian prosecutor general as well as parliamentarians from the Corruption Prevention Committee of the National Assembly.

Members recognised the efforts by the actual Government to tackle corruption in its various practises, but concluded that more needs to be done to bring real changes in the Bulgarian judiciary and prosecution systems in order to improve investigations into possible abuse of EU funds and corruption. Subsequently, they called for increased transparency and analysis of EU funded projects and continuous and effective fight against corruption in Bulgaria.

The CONT mission raised a big interest in the media. The highly participated - in both physic presence and on-line (10 journalists on-line) - press conference held at the end of the programme is the proof of that interest as well the number of articles in the written press.
