The Coordinators heard:

- Petra Kammerevert request the Chair to organise, as soon as possible, a secret ballot to elect the 3rd Vice Chair of the CULT Committee. The Chair explained that a remote secret ballot procedure is not yet in place as it is still at testing stage in other committees and that the vote will take place as soon as the remote secret ballot mechanism is available for committees.
- Petra Kammerevert request detailed information on the current revision of the European Parliament's Rules of Procedures (in particular the Annexes) and agreed to entrust the Secretariat to liaise with the AFCO Secretariat.
- Salima Yenbou report on a recent ruling of the Hungarian Supreme Court which upheld an appeal court decision of last year that the families of Roma children in the eastern town of Gyongyospata are to be financially compensated for being taught separately from other children at a primary school. Ms Yenbou requested an exchange of views on this issue with the NGO "Chance for Children Foundation" in one of the next CULT Committee meetings. Since exchanges of views and hearings with external participants are currently not possible, the Coordinators agreed to deal with this issue in the current CULT opinion on national Roma integration strategies and to seek further information from the Commission.

- Salima Yenbou report about recent developments in the Czech Television Council, which, in her view, undermines the independence of this supervisory body. The Coordinators decided to request information on this issue from the Commission and from ERGA.
