

WRITTEN QUESTION E-0350/00

by Rosa Díez González (PSE), Fernando Pérez Royo (PSE) and Luis Berenguer Fuster (PSE)
to the Commission

Subject: Public aid in the electricity sector in Spain: costs borne by the consumer

To date Spanish consumers have paid more than Ptas 300 000 million for the CTC (costs of transition to competition) approved by the Government and defined by the Commission, in principle, as illegal public aid. Does the Commission consider that action must be taken to put an immediate end to this situation?