

WRITTEN QUESTION E-1566/01
by Pervenche Berès (PSE)
to the Commission

Subject: Tax discrimination based on place of establishment

If a Member State's laws exempt bodies with scientific, humanitarian or technical objectives from succession duties, is refusal by the Member State's administration to grant such an exemption to an organisation of this type which pursues similar objectives in that Member State but is established in another Member State, compatible with the Treaty establishing the European Community?