

WRITTEN QUESTION E-0788/02
by Ursula Schleicher (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Effects of enlargement on the European Schools

What efforts is the Commission making to incorporate the languages of the applicant countries in the European School system in accordance with the principle of equal treatment for all languages?

Can the Commission confirm that the children of future EU colleagues from the current applicant countries will be taught in their mother tongues in the same way that education is provided in all languages at the moment.
