

WRITTEN QUESTION E-1395/02
by John McCartin (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Chicken meat imports into the EU

Can the Commission state what quantities of chicken meat are imported annually into the EU and from what countries? What percentage do these imports represent compared with European production? Further can the Commission state to what extent food safety standards and animal welfare standards are being observed in the production of these imported products?