

WRITTEN QUESTION E-2625/02
by Markus Ferber (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: VAT on postal services

The Commission has announced on several occasions that it will be presenting a proposal on the introduction of VAT on postal services.

Now that the Postal Services Directive has been adopted, when may we expect to see a Commission proposal to this effect?

What stage have discussions reached? What is the Commission's current thinking on this matter?
