

E-2689/02
Reply
(18 February 2003)

The Council informs the Honourable Parliamentarian that the day to day interpretation and application of the Code's principles is carried out by each Member State individually, when taking a decision on whether to grant an export licence. It does not lie in the Council's purview to exercise a review of such decisions.