

WRITTEN QUESTION E-3279/02
by Markus Ferber (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Presentation of a gift to the Commissioner for Health and Consumer Protection, David Byrne

Is it true that the Commissioner David Byrne has received a silver bust of Goethe weighing 20 kilos?

If so, did he receive it as a prize for his decisive action against smoking?

If this is the case, by whom and on what occasion was the silver bust presented?