

WRITTEN QUESTION E-0235/03
by Isidoro Sánchez García (ELDR)
to the Council

Subject: Greek Council Presidency's plans for the outermost regions

The exchange of views held in January 2003 between the European Parliament's Committee on Regional Policy, Transport and Tourism and the President-in-Office of the EU Ministers responsible for regional policy established the need to focus on the regional diversity of the European Union.

In this context, what plans does the Greek Council Presidency's work programme contain for the outermost regions of the European Union?