

WRITTEN QUESTION E-1795/03
by Terence Wynn (PSE)
to the Commission

Subject: Manufactured products from third countries

Why does the Commission allow manufactured products to enter the EU from third countries that do not meet minimum health, safety and environmental standards that EU companies have to comply with? Would the Commission agree that by allowing such products into the EU, the direct result is the loss of European manufacturing jobs?