

WRITTEN QUESTION E-3381/03
by David Martin (PSE)
to the Commission

Subject:           Transportation of horses from Romania to Italy

Would the Commission explain why, in the light of its own findings of violations of the law and great cruelty to the animals involved in the transportation of horses from Romania to Italy, it does not suspend this trade until certain legal requirements are met?