

WRITTEN QUESTION E-3553/03
by Claude Moraes (PSE)
to the Commission

Subject: Missing Cypriots

A group of my constituents, the Organisation of Relatives of Missing Cypriots (UK), wish to know what the situation is in resolving the case of the missing persons in Cyprus.

Does the Commission believe the Government of Turkey could exert more pressure on the Turkish Cypriot leadership to uphold its duties and responsibilities to human rights? If so, could the Commission please state whether this issue will form part of Turkey's accession negotiations?
