

WRITTEN QUESTION E-3671/03

by Joost Lagendijk (Verts/ALE) and Arie Oostlander (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Further cooperation in the fight against terrorism

Turkey recently suffered terrorist attacks on two synagogues on 15 November and on the British Consulate and the HSBC headquarters in Istanbul on 20 November 2003.

Does the Commission see any further possibility of extending cooperation with Turkey in the fight against terrorism, given that these attacks could impede the reform process in Turkey?
