

WRITTEN QUESTION E-0266/04
by John McCartin (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Imports of poultry meat into the EU

Can the Commission state what quantities of poultry meat have been imported into the European Union in the most recent six-month period for which statistics are available, and whether a suspension of such imports would have any significant effect on the European market for meat?