

WRITTEN QUESTION E-0317/04
by Nicholas Clegg (ELDR)
to the Commission

Subject: Pork by-products

Is it correct that the EU plans to ban the sale of all pork by-products unless cooked? Is the Commission aware that raw pork products contain digestive enzymes which provide relief to enzyme-deficient animals who might otherwise suffer? What assurances can the Commission give that raw pork products will be available for animal consumption for medicinal purposes?