

WRITTEN QUESTION E-3562/04
by Willi Piecyk (PSE)
to the Commission

Subject: Emission rights trading in the aviation sector

The International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) has recently confirmed - under pressure from the EU Member States in particular - that it will continue to support the trading of emission rights as a means of combating emissions produced by air traffic.

What measures does the Commission intend to take to integrate the aviation sector into the European system of emission rights trading?
