

WRITTEN QUESTION E-1228/05
by Christopher Huhne (ALDE)
to the Commission

Subject: Environmental Noise Directive

Can the Commission indicate whether the Environmental Noise Directive is applicable to ground-borne noise? If so, is the Commission aware of any Member States failing to implement this part of the Directive properly? Can the Commission give details of any such cases?

Can the Commission outline what other legislation is in place, or is currently under consideration, to protect EU citizens from the effects of ground-borne noise pollution?
