

WRITTEN QUESTION E-3845/06
by Paweł Piskorski (NI)
to the Commission

Subject: Situation in the Middle East

The situation in the Middle East is becoming ever more complicated. The Israeli-Lebanese conflict has pushed the Palestinian problem into the background. The European Union is marshalling huge sums from its reserves and is planning further spending on aid for the region. Has the Commission come up with any plans for bringing lasting peace to the region? Have any ideas been put forward as regards securing a consensus among the Member States? How does the Commission propose that this extremely complex crisis be resolved?
