

WRITTEN QUESTION E-2327/07
by Jean-Pierre Audy (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Compliance of French social security rules with Directives 92/49/EEC and 92/96/EEC

Many organisations representing the liberal professions are expressing their concern regarding the repeal of the compulsory social security monopoly in France. Can the Commission indicate if Directives 92/49/EEC¹ and 92/96/EEC² apply to compulsory social security in France? If so, will this situation lead to the repeal of the compulsory social security monopoly in France? Can the Commission explain the impact of Community legislation on the legal situation of social security in France?

¹ OJ L 228, 11.8.1992, p. 1.

² OJ L 360, 9.12.1992, p. 1.