to the Commission

Subject: Ría de Vigo improvement (Galicia, Spain)

The plan for improving the Ría de Vigo (Galicia, Spain) was submitted to the Commission by the Xunta de Galicia in May 2007; the relevant report establishes a working programme – which the appropriate authorities within the Galician Autonomous Government have already started to implement – scheduled to take place in various stages to 2012. Can the Commission tell me if Community legislation allows the Galician Government to have a deadline as far off as 2012 to carry out the work required, or whether the Commission is urge the Xunta de Galicia to shorten the deadline established in the report on the action plan for improving the Ría de Vigo?
