

WRITTEN QUESTION E-2425/08
by Elisabeth Jeggle (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Community action plan on the protection and welfare of animals

On 23 January 2006 the Commission published a Community action plan on the protection and welfare of animals setting out the EU measures proposed in this area over the period 2006-2010. That plan was warmly welcomed by Parliament and the Member States alike.

Does the Commission intend to review the effectiveness of the action plan over the next few months?

Will the Commission take the steps required to ensure that the preparations for the next action plan, to be adopted in 2010, are started in good time?
