to the Commission

Subject: Follow-up Green paper on modernising labour law to meet the challenges of the 21st century (COM(2006)0708)

The Commission's Green Paper served as a document for consultation. The Commission has published the different reactions received. I would like to pose a few questions in order to get an update of where we stand.

1. Can the Commission provide Parliament with an updated overview of the initiatives taken by the Commission with regard to the problems identified in the Green Paper?
2. Is the Commission planning to propose further legislation with regard to the problems identified in the Green Paper?
