

WRITTEN QUESTION E-1539/09
by Jim Allister (NI)
to the Commission

Subject: Tibet

In the light of the Chinese authorities' recent launch of a 'strike hard' campaign against Tibetans in Lhasa, raiding homes and businesses, questioning 5 766 people and making at least 81 arrests on charges including possession of 'reactionary songs', what is the Commission doing to promote the welfare of the Tibetans?