

WRITTEN QUESTION E-1623/09
by Chris Davies (ALDE)
to the Commission

Subject: Tracing leakage from CO₂ storage sites

Is it the Commission's intention to advise the competent authorities in Member States that an appropriate substance should be added to CO₂ streams intended for permanent underground storage to facilitate identification of any leakage, and to distinguish such leakage from the natural release of CO₂ from other sources?