

WRITTEN QUESTION E-2758/09
by Ashley Mote (NI)
to the Commission

Subject: Will budgets and budgetary control remain separate?

In the event of Dalia Grybauskaite winning the presidency of Lithuania in April, no doubt Lithuania will nominate another person as EU Commissioner.

But who will replace Dalia Grybauskaite as Budgets Commissioner?

Five years ago the Commission's view was that budgets and budgetary control should be under the supervision of two different commissioners.

Is that still the case? If not, what changed the Commission's collective mind?
