With reference to the Commission's reply to question E-2057/2010:

1. Does the Commission believe that immigration from outside the EU should replace the bulk of the decline in the number of working-age people in the EU, which is put at 40 million (by Eurostat) between now and 2050?
2. Does the Commission know the number of persons in the EU who are citizens of an EU Member State and whose ethnic origin is not European?
