Subject: How does the Commission intend to deal with the still unresolved problems of double taxation in the European Union?

In January 2011, the European Commission published a report on the results of the public consultation on double taxation conventions and the internal market.

According to the report, the results of the public consultation confirm that problems relating to double taxation within the European Union identified by the Commission in 2001 still persist today.

How does the Commission intend to resolve these problems and eliminate double taxation in the European Union?
