

Question for written answer E-007447/2011
to the Commission
Rule 117
Mathieu Grosch (PPE)

Subject: Application of the directive on the posting of workers

Drivers from a given European country working in the international road haulage sector are often based for weeks in another European country delivering shipments from that country to locations throughout Europe. In such cases, does the directive on the posting of workers apply?

If so, does the directive apply only after drivers have spent a certain period of time abroad?