

Question for written answer E-011766/2011
to the Commission

Rule 117

Jaroslav Paška (EFD), Niki Tzavela (EFD), Mara Bizzotto (EFD), Nikolaos Salavrakos (EFD) and Fiorello Provera (EFD)

Subject: EU measures to have acceptable interest rate for indebted eurozone member state bonds

Current EU measures and actions have not helped some indebted Member States (such as Greece, Spain and Italy) in their attempts to access money on the financial markets.

What other targeted measures does the EU intend to take so that the lending of funds for these countries is on acceptable interest rate terms?