

Question for written answer E-000379/2013
to the Commission
Rule 117
Vilija Blinkevičiūtė (S&D)

Subject: Protection of workers' rights and combating discrimination

In this Year of European Citizens, the Council plans to pay as much attention as possible to the protection of workers' rights and combating discrimination.

1. Does the Commission plan to take action in this field to improve the situation for workers who are mobile within the European Union?
2. What immediate plans does the Commission have in the field of legislation for combating discrimination against workers?