Subject: Evaluation of the EU 'Culture' programme

Funding for the European 'Culture' programme (2007-2013) amounts to EUR 400 million. Its aim is to support European culture, promote the various cultures of the Member States and, of course, foster cross-border cooperation on questions of culture and our common cultural heritage.

In view of this:

1. Can the Commission tell me how much of the above total has been taken up by the Member States?
2. Where does Greece stand in this respect?
