

Question for written answer E-003657/2014
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 117
Michał Tomasz Kamiński (ECR)

Subject: VP/HR - Attacks on Christians in Islamic states

On 23 March 2014, a group of Islamic extremists attacked an Evangelical community in the vicinity of Mombasa. At least three people were killed and approximately ten injured. A few days earlier, the Christian parents of two children were brutally killed.

What instruments does the EU possess to prevent further attacks on Christians in Islamic states and generally improve the security of such communities?