

Question for written answer E-012740/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

David Campbell Bannerman (ECR)

Subject: EU Framework Programme

How much from the EU Framework Programme for Research and Development and the European Regional Development Fund has been paid to the British television Channel Four and its subsidiaries over the last five years and for what purposes and has EU funding been used to fund TV drama and other TV programmes designed to attack Eurosceptic arguments?

How much money from the EU Framework Programme for Research and Development and the European Regional Development Fund has been paid to the independent British television company RAW TV Ltd, and for what purposes and has EU funding been used to fund TV drama and other TV programmes designed to attack Eurosceptic arguments?

How much money from the EU Framework Programme for Research and Development and the European Regional Development Fund has been paid to the independent British television company RAW TV Ltd to research, develop and produce the documentary film 'UKIP: The First 100 Days' which was broadcast on Channel Four in Britain in April 2015?