

Question for written answer E-004814/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Christofer Fjellner (PPE)

Subject: Infringement cases on matters relating to gambling

On 14 October 2014 the Commission announced that it was intending to bring two cases against Sweden to the Court of Justice relating to the country's gambling services legislation. The first case relates to online betting services and internet poker services. The second case relates to the provision and promotion of online poker games.

When is the Commission intending to bring an action on these cases before the Court of Justice?