

Question for written answer E-000626/2017
to the Council

Rule 130

Kazimierz Michał Ujazdowski (ECR)

Subject: New forms of solidarity in immigration policy

Immigration policy requires new forms of solidarity that should not include arbitrary and centralised actions taken by the Commission. Declarations to that effect were made by the previous Presidency and at the Bratislava Summit.

The approach taken by the new Presidency of the Council is of vital importance. What new forms of immigration policy will the Maltese Presidency propose?