Subject: EU citizenship

Can the Commission legally define EU citizenship and provide information on the scale of permanent inbound migration of EU citizens into the UK, broken down by how long the citizens in question have been in the country? Could the Commission please include occupational data, employment statistics, imprisonment rates by country as well as demographic data, with particular focus on age and educational/skill levels. Could it please repeat the exercise in analogous fashion for UK citizens living in the EU, broken down by the country they are currently living in.
