

Question for written answer E-003752/2017
to the Commission

Rule 130

Fabio De Masi (GUE/NGL)

Subject: EU response to the USA's planned withdrawal from the Paris Agreement on climate change

Is the Commission considering economic and trade measures against the USA, including punitive customs duties, following President Donald Trump's announcement that the USA will withdraw from the Paris Agreement on climate change?

What implications does this announcement have for the TTIP negotiations and other similar agreements with the USA?