to the Commission

Rule 130

Kazimierz Michał Ujazdowski (ECR)

Subject: Participation of cities in programming EU policies

In the White Paper on the future of Europe, the Commission stated that a series of documents regarding the future of EU policies were in the pipeline.

Furthermore, the Treaty of Amsterdam and the Urban Agenda set 12 thematic partnerships created by European cities, assuming that they will formulate proposals regarding the preparation and implementation of EU policies. Will the new documents on the future of the EU which were announced in the White Paper take into account the recommendations of individual pact partnerships? What form will the process of consulting cities' representatives on the new documents take?
