

Question for written answer E-003357/2018
to the Commission
Rule 130
Mirosław Piotrowski (ECR)

Subject: Two EU budgets

The European Commission is the guardian of the EU Treaties. The Lisbon Treaty does not provide for two EU budgets from the EU's own resources.

In the Commission's view, does the proposal for a separate budget or independent financial framework for the eurozone not breach its financial provisions and the principles of consistency of policies and actions?