

Question for written answer E-001806/2019
to the Commission
Rule 130
Seán Kelly (PPE)

Subject: Europe Day

Europe Day is held on 9 May every year to celebrate peace and unity in Europe, and marks the anniversary of the historic Schuman Declaration.

A campaign began earlier this year to make Europe Day a public holiday across the European Union.

Can the Commission provide an update on what measures it has taken, if any, to promote the recognition of Europe Day as a public holiday?