

Question for written answer E-003431/2019
to the Commission
Rule 138
Christine Anderson

Subject: Cross-border criminal clans and the role of women

- 1 Is the Commission aware of the role of women as active members of cross-border criminal clans in the EU Member States?
- 2 Is the Commission aware of any measures taken in the EU Member States specifically targeting female criminals who are active in criminal clan structures? If so, what are they?
- 3 In what way do the Member States receive EU funds for specifically targeting cross-border clan crime involving women? Please provide a breakdown by Member State, support measure and year from 2014 to 2018.

Supporters¹

¹ This question is supported by Members other than its author: Jaak Madison (ID), Isabella Tovaglieri (ID), Peter Kofod (ID), Virginie Joron (ID), Annika Bruna (ID), Nicolaus Fest (ID)