

Question for written answer E-003665/2019
to the Commission
Rule 138
Ruža Tomašić (ECR)

Subject: Investigating the crimes committed by totalitarian regimes

The European Union provides financial support to projects that investigate the crimes of totalitarian regimes. The list of proposals eligible for funding in 2019 contains 45 projects.

1. How can civil society organisations, interested in the topic of investigating the crimes of totalitarian regimes, apply for funding under the European Remembrance Projects programme?
2. What are the criteria for selecting eligible projects?
3. In this regard, is the competition published on an annual basis?