

Question for written answer E-002302/2020
to the Commission

Rule 138

Lars Patrick Berg (ID)

Subject: Civil rights during and after the health crisis caused by the COVID-19 pandemic

In the context of the health crisis caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, fundamental civil rights such as freedom of assembly, freedom of movement and freedom to work in various occupations have been substantially restricted.

What measures will the Commission take to ensure that all civil and fundamental rights are fully restored and strengthened in all Member States as soon as possible?

What view does the Commission take of the proposal being debated in Germany that citizens should be monitored using automatically installed tracking apps and that data should be collected?

What measures will the Commission take to ensure that the use of cash is not further reduced and ultimately even abolished under the pretext of the health crisis?